The SLA shall apply to the Desktops and Peripherals supplied and installed by the Company under this Agreement with reference to the tender with notice No. _____ Dated: _____ at the respective sites of installation during warranty as agreed by the parties mentioned in the other documents and Annexures in this Agreement.

2) Definitions

“Response Time” shall mean the interval from receipt of first information from “Bank” to “Company” by any means of communication informing them of the malfunction in Computer Systems to the time “Company’s” Engineer reaches the site.

“Repair Time” shall mean the period from the time “Company’s Engineer gains access to the Computer Systems/ Peripherals to the time the Computer Systems/ Peripherals is restored to the normal working conditions. The “Company” shall demonstrate such restoration to the concerned officer/official at the site.

“Down Time” shall mean the interval between the time of reporting of failure to the time of completion of repair. Down Time is the sum of response time and repair time with the following exclusions:

- Period when “BANK” denies access to the Engineer from “Company”, within the scheduled working hours of the “BANK”.
- Period when “BANK” denies access to the “Company” Engineer due to the non-availability of authorized “BANK” staff during the scheduled hours.
- Period when no malfunction is located provided the reasons for non functionality are beyond the scope of the machine as demonstrated.

The “Company” has to attend the calls within reasonable timings convenient to the “Bank”. For the timings beyond scheduled working hours, a request needs to be made to the “Bank” for allowing the entry. The down time of the Computer System, shall be the period the machine remains off, due to the “Company’s” problem.

3) Percentage down time

Shall mean the aggregate of downtime of the particular computer component and/or computer systems during the year expressed as a percentage of total available time in a year i.e. $365 * 24$ hours. Thus, if the aggregate downtime of a computer component and/or computer systems works out to 87.6 hours during a year then the percentage downtime shall be calculated as follows:

$$\frac{87.6 \times 100}{365 \times 24} = 1.0\%$$

4) Duration of SLA

The SLA shall be valid for the period till the warranty of last of the Computer Systems or system components there of installed by the “Company” at any of the concerned sites of the “Bank” expires.

5) Maintenance Service Definition

“Company” agrees to provide the following services under the SLA to keep the computer component and/or computer systems in good working order:-

- i) Unscheduled on call remedial maintenance for repairing malfunctions including immediate replacement of defective parts, system Formatting & reinstallation of both OS and AS as mentioned in clause 3 of the agreement with the minimum down time OR provide alternate standby computer system , Laptop or printer till the original one is set in working conditions.
- ii) Scheduled Preventive Maintenance once in six months to ensure the health of the Computer Systems/ Peripherals for indicated functionalities and may involve replacement of parts and batteries found damaged or likely to result in the problem in the functioning of the computer system
- iii) The replaced parts will be new or equivalent to new parts in performance. The removed parts shall become the property of “Company”.
- iv) In case the repair period exceed by one working day the machine could be immediately replaced with a temporary arrangement without any financial implication on the Bank.

Subject to existence of any other Agreement between the parties to the contrary, maintenance will not, cover repairing defects in the computer component and/or computer systems arising out of misuse, abuse, neglect, improper handling and damages caused by accidents or repairs carried out by personnel other than the authorized personnel of “Company”. In such cases “Bank” shall place orders for the repairs and/or spares whatever required, which shall be provided by the “Company”. The “Company” shall take minimum reasonable time for examination and assessing the damages and shall inform the “Bank” subsequently 72 hours after placing the orders, the call shall be treated as normal call for rectification and down time.

6) Preventive Maintenance

- a. Preventive Maintenance shall be provided to ensure that the Computer System is maintained in good operating condition as per the Computer System Performance Specifications during the term of the Agreement, and includes the provision of labour, service parts and travelling time as deemed necessary by “Company” at no extra charges to the “Bank”.
- b. The preventive maintenance shall be at least once in six months on half yearly basis. In exceptional cases, the “Company” shall determine the frequency and duration of Preventive Maintenance where same is required more than once in a Half Year, in accordance with the computer system Specifications.
- c. The preventive maintenance & support to the Computer Systems shall include checking the health of all the computer component and/or computer systems prescribed performance including the scheduled /agreed backup support & shall enumerate the steps taken /required to be taken by each party to ensure the stated performance of the system.

- d. During preventive maintenance the “Company” shall replace the system components as per the prescribed schedule for wear and tear and other usage factors if any.
- e. The “Company” shall coordinate in advance with the concerned officers/ officials of the concerned site for the suitable day and time for such preventive maintenance.

7) Hours of Service

“Company” shall provide 10AM to 5 PM service 7 days a week at the sites where the COMPUTER SYSTEMS/ PERIPHERALS are installed. The service call would be logged at the service center or at mobile numbers as provided by the company along with the bid document.
